Commissioner Bryan Glover explained that Competency Evaluations are ordered by the court and is not something that the Commissioners directly oversee, however it is required to come out of the Commissioner's budget.

Judge Lisa Glickfield explained that competency evaluations are only ordered when needed. The courts have created a spreadsheet for tracking purposes and are actively working to keep this cost effective.

Councilperson Blevins asked how the $40,000 request was determined. Commissioner Glover explained that this was an estimate based on history.

Councilperson Williams-Hampton asked what credentials are needed to perform a competency evaluation. Judge Glickfield stated that this is dictated by Indiana Code based off of the level of the charge. It is typically a Psychiatrist or Psychologist.

The properties that are included in the current invoice are properties that TMA discovered an ineligible homestead on, but Clark County is unable to bill for. In a lot of cases this happens when the eligible homestead is located in Clark County, but the ineligible homestead is located elsewhere.

Transitioning current full time employee to part time

1000-369, Probation Officer, $30.843 per hour

2100-369, Probation Officer, $3.427 per hour

Jamie Hayden, with Probation stated that Probation has an employee who would like to transition from Full Time to Part Time, in order to receive benefits through her husband's work. Probation is proposing that the full time be replaced with a part time position, making the same hourly rate. Probation would not hire an employee into the full time position. This would result in an estimated $20,000 of savings to the county, since the employee would not be receiving county benefits.
